

U.S. To Stay Out Of New European Pact Including Germany

Four-power Treaty is Proposed, Including Great Britain, France, Italy and Germany, to Remove German Invasion Bugbear

REDUCE STANDING ARMIES

United States Will Give Moral Support — Conferences Including Germans Will Bring Assured Settlement of Reparations

Washington.—Word has reached here through unofficial channels of a movement under way in Europe to bring about a new four-power treaty whereby Great Britain, France, Italy and Germany should agree to guarantee each other's territory against "unprovoked aggression" by any other power.

This plan, which curiously enough owes its inspiration to French diplomacy, seeks a way to remove the bugbear of a possible invasion by Germany which has been held forth as justification for the continued existence of large standing armies on the continent of Europe. Broadly speaking the French liberals who are back of the plan believe the time has come to bring Germany into a combination with the other powers which will tranquilize Europe and aid its economic recuperation.

In one sense, the plan recognizes the unworkability of the enforcement clauses of the Versailles treaty with its recurring penalties of occupation of German territory in the event of German failure to pay indemnities. The idea now is to obtain some unanimity of opinion among the larger powers of Europe so that the reparation burden may be more equably adjusted and so that Germany herself will adopt a new spirit toward her obligations under the Versailles pact.

U. S. NOT A PARTY

The United States government will of course not be a party to such a new treaty in Europe as is the viewpoint of the Harding administration that guarantees against aggression on the continent of Europe are strictly European matters. On the other hand the American government would lend its moral support to any movement which accomplished peace in Europe. The suggestion of a four-power pact including Germany was first discussed informally when Premier Briand was in Washington. Heretofore alliances have been made only between friendly powers as an offset to possible attacks by unfriendly nations. The making of a four-power pact between Great Britain, France, United States and Japan, however, offers a precedent which it includes the very country—Japan—which has been the most regarded as the potential opponent of the United States.

Mr. Harding has informally indicated that before long the European powers would have to include Germany in their discussions of European questions and that until Germany sat down at the same table with France and Great Britain there would be no assurance of a settlement of pending problems, especially reparations.

NEED GUARANTEES

In the conferences which have been going on in London, the French viewpoint has been that until Great Britain gave France explicit guarantees that she would come to the aid of France in the event of an attack by Germany, there could be no curtailment of French land armament or concessions to Germany. The British have declared that the withdrawal of French troops from the Rhine country would help to assure peace in Europe.

The situation is therefore somewhat analogous to that which prompted the four-power pact on the Pacific. In this case the French having failed to get a three-power pact with Great Britain and the United States guaranteeing France against unprovoked aggression, the alternative is to obtain such a guarantee for France by coupling it up with a German guarantee, too.

PLAN RECEPTION ON DEBS ARRIVAL

Mrs. Debs Sits at Terre Haute Home Eagerly Awaiting Appearance of Husband

Terre Haute, Ind.—Mrs. Eugene V. Debs put a holy wreath in the window Saturday and waited.

The enduring wife of "Gene," who was granted amnesty as a Christmas present from President Harding, nestled all her strength so that "Gene" would know that "I've been ill."

"I'm sorry that Gene will not be here for Christmas," Mrs. Debs said when told that her husband would not be released from Atlanta prison until Christmas day and could not reach her until Monday.

Mrs. Debs, however, must have believed that perhaps, by some means or other, Gene would arrive before Monday. It may just have been her strong desire to see her husband.

Debs will have a triumphant entry into his home town.

Businessmen, coal diggers, professional men and others will be at the station to greet the unfettered Gene and four time candidate for the presidency.

TO TEACH CHINA U.S. WAYS

Miss Winnie Wong of Hong Kong is studying at Radcliffe College. She likes Americans and American life, but she is going back to China when she completes her education. "I hope to give all that I have seen and all that I have learned to those who have no opportunity to come to America," she says. Her father is founder of the Specie Bank of China. Her mother is a leading educator.

Red Store Looting Plot Incited By Envy Of Rich Nipped By London Police

By United Press Leased Wire
London.—A red plot to loot fashionable London stores during the Christmas shopping rush was believed thwarted by police Saturday.

Five hundred unemployed of the West London districts had planned to march to Oxford Circus ostensibly to demonstrate against Christmas shopping extravagance but in reality to loot stores, police said. Many of the men were armed. It was declared.

Two thousand others from the east end were to commence looting at the Strand and West End until they reached the west end and body, according to the police diagnosis of the plot.

The scheme was frustrated when police mobilized 100 mounted men at points of vantage along the route. Warnings were issued to storekeepers to be prepared.

Several hundred unemployed men marched to Hyde Park closely watched by police. There was no demonstration.

England's cup of joy at holiday season was somewhat embittered by these reports and the fact that there are approximately two million men out of work. This coupled with the crash of prices made it appear the cheapest Christmas in years.

Bands of unemployed gathered as early as 4 a. m. at the town halls in the labor boroughs, registered and received Christmas gifts. The gifts generally are small packages of tea, butter, sugar, milk and flour.

At 9 a. m. Saturday 4,000 persons were gathered in one line. The royal family will spend Christmas at York cottage Sandringham. The party will include King George, the queen, Princess Mary, the duke of York, Prince Henry, Queen Alexandra with the king and queen of Norway and his son, the crown prince Olaf. The queen is a sister of King George. Two members of the British royal family will be absent. The prince of Wales is in India and Prince George, the youngest is a midshipman on a battle cruiser at Malta.

Several hundred unemployed men marched to Hyde Park closely watched by police. There was no demonstration.

BRITISH READY TO ANSWER FRANCE'S SUBSEA DEMANDS

Will Build Big Fleet of Anti-submarine Ships if Tonnage Plea is Granted

Washington.—If France permits an agreement on submarine tonnage, Great Britain will reserve the right to build up a tremendous anti-submarine fleet.

This notice stood out Saturday as the naval disarmament committee gathered, hoping to end before Christmas its "debate" on the submarine question.

The French with their suggestion for 20,000 tons of U-boats as the minimum effective for any nation, were apparently bidding their time before making known their auxiliary craft desires. They had indicated that their requests for tonnage in light cruisers will be contingent largely upon what the conference did with the 20,000 ton submarine request.

Should France lose in this line, as it evidently will, it would ask a proportionately larger tonnage in cruisers, it was indicated.

In any event, it was said definitely that the question of ratio on capital ships cannot be disturbed. If the parties cannot come to satisfactory conclusions then each power will be free to fix its own course concerning submarines.

STATE TROOPS QUELL KENTUCKY STEEL STRIKE

By United Press Leased Wire
Newport, Ky.—State troops sent here to quell disturbances arising as a result of a strike of steel workers, took charge of the situation Saturday. Four companies of guardsmen arrived in the city in the early forenoon.

Murder And Kidnap During Christmas Banditry Wave

Gun Battles In Bronx Take Lives Of Two

Cigar Store Bandit Falls from Detective's Bullet — Saloon-keeper Trying to Escape Holdup is Shot Dead in Doorway

By United Press Leased Wire
New York.—A Christmas crime wave struck New York during the night. Two men were killed and two wounded in gun battles between police bandits and their victims.

Nelson Levy was killed in the Bronx after having held up a United Cigar store. With a companion he took possession of the store and waited on customers. Two detectives were wounded by shots when they entered the shop and tried to arrest the bandits. Levy's confederate escaped.

Kill Saloonkeeper
Leon Sottili, a saloonkeeper of the Bronx, was shot and killed by bandits when he tried to run out the back door of his barroom as the holdup men entered by the front.

Philip S. Honeywood, nephew of the Earl of Devon, was held up by a man who asked him for a lift as he drove his car on a lonely road near Wood-cliff Lake, N. Y. Honeywood was blackjacked and left bound and gagged.

Four thousand dollars in jewels was obtained by robbers who held up a restaurant in the Bowery district. One of the diners had the jewels in a small box.

Henry Edison opened fire on two bandits who tried to hold up his father's jewelry store on the Bowery, driving them away.

Three masked thugs, held up a Bronx drug store at midnight and escaped with $200, leaving the proprietor gagged and bound to a radiator.

WANT CITIZENSHIP RETURNED TO DEBS

Civil Disabilities of Imprisonment Not Removed When He Gained Freedom

By United Press Leased Wire
Washington.—A move to secure citizenship rights for Eugene V. Debs is expected to be started by his friends immediately following his release from Atlanta prison.

Officials said Saturday that until the courts restore his citizenship, Debs cannot vote or exercise other civil functions. The commutation of sentence granted Debs and 23 other so-called "political prisoners" merely terminates their terms of imprisonment without removing in any way the civil disabilities which, prison sentences carry.

After the holidays President Harding will continue his study of the remaining 17 cases laid before him by the department of justice. Those involving men who were guilty of sabotage will be laid aside indefinitely as President Harding is opposed to any leniency for them. The others will be passed upon as rapidly as possible, it was said, and given their freedom as fast as favorable decisions are reached.

24 PARDONS TAKE EFFECT MONDAY

Debs and Group of Political Prisoners Are Ordered Freed by Harding

Washington.—Official orders for the release of Eugene V. Debs and the 23 other political prisoners from the three federal prisons left the department of justice Saturday morning, according to James A. Finch, pardon attorney.

A definite decision was reached at a conference of President Harding and Attorney General Daugherty at the White House Thursday night not to release any of the war prisoners until Sunday—Christmas day.

BRIAND ASSAILED BY POLITICAL ENEMIES

Paris.—Political opponents of Premier Briand launched a general attack on him in the chamber of deputies Saturday.

Dr. Kloetz, former cabinet member, demanded that the chamber debate the reparations situation before the Christmas conference. Briand refused and requested a postponement until after that conference. He demanded a vote of confidence. Briand's opponents also lashed their attacks on the failure of the Industrial Bank of

PRAYERS OF POOR WILL REWARD GOOD FELLOWS

(Somewhere in Appleton tomorrow 1,000 men, women and children, victims of unfortunate circumstances, will mingle tears of gratitude with smiles of happiness as they enjoy the bounty of Appleton's Good Fellows. Elsewhere in Appleton 1,000 more men, women and children will enjoy a happier Christmas because they have been Good Fellows to the city's needy. You, who so generously responded to this appeal of the hungry and the helpless, have earned the gratitude and the prayers of the poor whose Christmas has been made happy and the good women whose work of providing for the needy has been made easier by your generosity.

The Good Fellows club closed its membership roll at noon today with a total of $1,231.25 in its treasury. Every cent of this magnificent fund is to be used for the relief of suffering and will be expended under the direction of the five charities which have combined their efforts this year to make sure that every needy family in Appleton was provided for. Final distribution of the fund was made at noon, each society sharing in it in proportion to the number of families it is caring for. A complete report of the distribution and a complete roll of the membership of the Good Fellows club will be printed in the Post-Crescent on Tuesday.

How to express the gratefulness of the five associated charities and the Post-Crescent to Appleton's Good Fellows is a difficult problem. Mere words are empty and soundless in the face of the great suffering you have relieved. Your greatest reward will not be in public acknowledgment of your generous hearts but in the satisfaction of knowing that you have done all that you could for those who could not help themselves.

Let it suffice then to say that in the same measure as your heart has been touched and softened by the pitiful appeal of the helpless so will you enjoy the good will and happiness that is characteristic of the day dedicated to the Greatest Heart of all, a wish in which the five associated charities and the Post-Crescent join with those whom you have befriended.

Two Appleton Men Honored By Pope

Father Fitzmaurice is Elevated to Rank of Monsignor and Gustave Keller is Made a Knight of St. Gregory.

Two Appleton men on Friday received Christmas presents from Pope Benedict XV, head of the Roman Catholic church, in the form of decorations for the meritorious service they have performed. The Rev. W. J. Fitzmaurice, pastor of St. Mary church for more than 20 years, was given the rank of monsignor, and Gustave Keller, postmaster, was made a Knight of St. Gregory, one of the highest honors which the pope can confer on a layman.

Announcement of the honors was made Saturday morning by Bishop Paul J. Mundelein of Green Bay diocese. The local men had been notified of the honors conferred on them on Friday.

The men were honored by the pope because of the work that they have accomplished. Father Fitzmaurice, by his elevation to the rank of monsignor, becomes a member of the body of the pope and is entitled to wear the purple, distinctive color of the bishop. Hereafter he will be known as Monsignor W. J. Fitzmaurice.

The bishop announced that the order of St. Gregory was conferred on Mr. Keller because of his outstanding leadership in affairs of church and state. The order recognizes his outstanding service in the campaign to raise funds for St. Elizabeth hospital, his work as diocesan chairman of the recent campaign to raise $1,000,000 in the Green Bay diocese for charity, his long connection with fraternal organizations, his splendid work during the World war as chairman of Out-gambling county Council of Defense and his other efforts in behalf of the state and the church.

Mr. Keller is the first layman in the Green Bay diocese to receive the decoration. It is an honor conferred on very few men and is given only to those who have done extremely meritorious work.

From reliable sources the names of five of the six were learned. They are: Capper, Kansas; McNary, Oregon; Jones, Washington; Kellogg, Minnesota, and Willis, Ohio. It was believed by senators in close touch with the situation that Senator Cummings, Iowa, was the sixth member of this group.

Republicans already said to be against Newberry are Borah, Kenyon, Ladd, Johnson, LaFollette, Norbeck and Norris.

KILLED BY TRAIN WHEN DELIVERING PRESENTS

RELEASE ALL, IS SOCIALIST VIEW

Leader Says Harding Grudgingly Yielded to Demand too Strong to Resist

Chicago.—Failure of President Harding to release all political prisoners "makes the release of Debs and a few others appear as a grudging concession to a demand which was becoming too strong to be longer resisted," Otto F. Branstetter, executive secretary of the Socialist party stated Saturday in commenting on the release of Eugene V. Debs.

"It would have been a fine thing if Mr. Harding would have been big and liberal and patriotic enough to have gone beyond what he considered the actual demand and granted executive clemency to all prisoners who had been convicted for violation of the espionage act," Branstetter said.

Moonshine Not Sunshine Came; Want Beer Back

By United Press Leased Wire
Milwaukee.—"Instead of bringing sunshine, prohibition has brought moonshine into half the homes of the country," said an alderman here Friday night at a meeting of the committee on licenses of the common council.

The committee voted to recommend for passage the Landowski resolution petitioning congress for an amendment to the Volstead act to permit the use of beer and light wines.

Rob Wealthy Iowan; Chain Him To Auto

Chicago Family is Separated and Robberies Committed While Machines Are Driven Through Streets — Detective Is Shot.

By United Press Leased Wire
Chicago.—A night of Christmas crime which included a revolver duel at Chicago's busiest corner, State and Madison streets, and a $25,000 holdup, was climaxed early Saturday by two hold kidnappings of wealthy motorists.

Arthur C. Buth, a wealthy inventor and manufacturer of flat irons of Des Moines, Iowa, who was visiting relatives here, was kidnapped, slugged and robbed and left chained to his automobile on a bleak, blizzard-swept prairie on the outskirts of the city.

He was taken to German Deaconess hospital where he recovered consciousness long enough to establish his identity and again lapsed into unconsciousness. His condition was critical. He went out in his automobile early in the evening. Apparently he had been held up downtown and forced to drive to the outskirts of the city where he was beaten over the head with butts of revolvers.

KIDNAP FAMILY
John A. McRae, a Detroit manufacturer, his wife Edith and John G. Allen, McRae's representative in Chicago, were the known victims of the second kidnapping. A fourth man who had just been found Saturday and whose identity is yet to be established, was the other victim with the McRae family.

McRae and his wife left the LaSalle hotel where they had been staying about 10 p. m. and met Allen and a companion a few minutes later. While driving on the south side, they were held up by five bandits.

Mrs. McRae and the stranger were forced into the bandit car. A robber demanded Mrs. McRae's rings. She had hidden them in the safe at the hotel, she told the robber.

CALLED WOMAN "LIAR"
The bandit told her she was a "liar" and forced her to take off her shoes. The bandit searched her and subjected her to insults, but she gamely refused to give up the gems. They took about $500 of her money and finally dumped her from the automobile near the hotel.

In the meantime bandits had taken charge of her husband's car and robbed him and Allen of their money and valuables and early Saturday allowed them to leave their auto near the hotel.

The fourth "victim," who police believe was planted by the bandit gang and one of them, has not been heard from.

An alleged shoplifter shot and wounded Robert Fitzgerald, a detective for Carson, Fife and Scott company, one of Chicago's largest stores. The detective accused the man as he was leaving the store. The alleged thief shot while hundreds of shoppers were milling around the door of the store. He was caught after a chase.

A wagon delivering Christmas purchases from Blum's shop, one of Chicago's most exclusive stores, was held up and $25,000 worth of furs was taken.

Premier Takahashi of Japan Thinks Conference Has Accomplished Much

By United Press Leased Wire
Tokyo.—Danger of armed conflict on the Pacific has been removed by the Washington conference on limitation of armaments Premier Takahashi of Japan told the United Press Saturday in an exclusive interview.

"I see no reason for doubt that the limitation of armaments conference has removed effectually all possible danger of armed conflict on the Pacific," the premier said.

"I welcome the unreserved manner of dealing which has characterized the negotiations as well as the spirit of sacrifice which has been shown by all the powers and in which Japan has not lagged."

FINANCING OPERAS IS TOO EXPENSIVE

McCormick and Millionaires May Desert Chicago Grand Opera Company Next Year

By United Press Leased Wire Chicago—Harold F. McCormick and other millionaires Friday discussed whether to quit giving their fortunes for a song.

The "angels" of the Chicago Grand Opera company, met with the directors of the organization to decide what disposition is to be made of the most expensive organization in the world.

Many Garden, under whose management this year grand opera in Chicago costs $2,500,000 for 23 weeks, was ill at her apartment while the tenor, which may result in abandoning the opera company, aged.

Scores of expensive song birds, lured by gold from Europe, have not yet made their appearance with the company. "Angels" come around for rehearsal once in a while and draw salaries that, it was indicated, is even taking the breath of multi-millionaires.

It was stated authoritatively that Miss Garden will be asked to continue as director of the company next year, if the board can make both ends meet. The meeting Friday was in no way meant to be a criticism of Miss Garden.

If it done right, opera is expensive, one director stated, adding that "Mary has done it right."

WATTERSON BODY REPOSES IN VAULT

Messages of Sympathy Flood Jacksonville from Friends of Noted Publicist

Jacksonville, Fla.—"Morse Henry" Watterson, the "grand old man of journalism," sleeps Saturday in a marble vault in Bicknell cemetery here, while the world mourns his passing.

In the spring time his body will be conveyed to the heart of the "Blue Grass section" of Kentucky—there to rest forever among his home folks.

Hundreds of telegrams from his many friends in this country and scores of cablegrams from all over the world have been received by Mrs. Watterson, clearly revealing the esteem in which the veteran editor was held throughout the world.

There were messages from world notables, but many came from persons in the humblest walks of life whom "Morse Henry" had befriended. One was from "Jim" Watterson's aged and faithful negro servant at Louisville, sent for him by Arthur Krook, editor of the Louisville Times.

"Jim and I are weeping for the death of the old Master," it read.

RED CROSS TOTAL COLLECTION $500 LESS THAN IN 1920

Only One Ward in City Shows Improvement Over Year Ago — County Falls Short

The final report on the Red Cross roll call as submitted to the Red Cross workers by Hugh G. Corbett, chairman, shows the total collections in Outagamie county to be about $500 less than last year. The total amount collected in the entire county including Appleton, in 1921 is $3,363.69 as compared with $3,891.67 in 1920. Of this fund, $1,775.35 is retained by the local chapter, $405 is refunded to the branches and $1,183.25 is sent to the national headquarters. Appleton totals are $2385.10 in 1921 and $2938.42 in 1920.

Oneida, Black Creek, Shiocton and Greenville raised more money than a year ago but other places were considerably lower. In Kaukauna in 1920, $1050 was raised and $220 is the Kaukauna total for 1921. No reports were made last year for Osborn, which reported $16 this year and for Nichols, which reported $21. In Appleton, the first ward was the one to go above its last year's total, raising $496 as compared with $430.50 of last year. The total from the hotels was slightly higher being $109.01 this year and $98.25 last year. In the sixth ward, only $45 was collected as compared with $242 last year. This decrease is due in part to the lack of workers in the outlying districts.

Half of the money which was raised in each town is kept by the local branch and the other half turned

BUY HALF INTEREST IN HIGH GRADE SIRE

Outagamie Farmers Expect to Strengthen Herds as Result of Purchase

Edward O. Mueller of Grand Chute and Fred Kappling of Greenville have just purchased a one-half interest in a 2-year-old pure bred Holstein sire which originally came from The Curtis farm of New York.

This dam made a 32-pound butter record in 7 days, giving over 650 pounds of milk in the same period. She was put on a long time test and in 10 months, or 305 days, she produced 20,000 pounds of milk with over 200 pounds of butter.

She freshened within the same year and increased her former 7-day record by making a record of 34 pounds of butter from 655 pounds of milk. As to individuality the sire is a good dairy animal and carries a straight top line. In fact he is one of three of the best bulls in the county and accordingly takes a leading place among Holstein sires. Paul O. Nyhus learned a half interest in the animal could be purchased and took the matter up with Mueller and Kappling, who immediately became interested.

TELEPHONE COMPANY IS CITED FOR PART IN WAR

The part which the American Telephone and Telegraph Co., of which the Wisconsin Telephone Co. is a subsidiary, played in the world war, is admirably set forth in a citation by the war department, a copy of which has been received by H. M. Fellows, manager of the local exchange. The citation, which is framed, is accompanied by a letter from H. B. Thayer, president of the American Telephone and Telegraph Co.

Here is the citation: "The war department of the United States government recognizes in this award for distinguished service, the loyalty, energy and efficiency in the performance of the war work by which the American Telephone and Telegraph company aided materially in obtaining victory for the arms of the United States of America in the war with the Imperial German government and the Royal Austro-Hungarian government."

The citation adds that through the loyal cooperation of the company the signal corps was able to attain a high efficiency and carry on its work in a smooth manner. The citation will be hung in the commercial office of the company here.

Mr. John Lane publishes a two-shilling booklet called "Charlie The Genius" by Louis Delu, translated from Danish. It is a little volume under one hundred pages, says the LONDON DAILY MAIL.

MRS. QUINLAN SCORES TRIUMPH AS SOLOIST

Winifred Willson Quinlan, soprano soloist, scored a big success in her appearances with the Milton college and Janesville choruses when they presented Handel's "Messiah" at the college Tuesday and in Janesville Wednesday. One reviewer in the Janesville Gazette said: "The pastoral symphony which they gave as a prelude to the second part, was played with delicacy and finish and formed a fitting setting to the liquid sweetness of the recitative solo of the soprano, Winifred Quinlan. Her number, 'I Know That My Redeemer Liveth,' was a marvel of true tone and perfect phrasing."

The choruses which sang the Messiah to capacity houses included 255 splendid voices. Other soloists were Winifred McGaw, James Hamilton and Albert Borroff. L. H. Stringer was the conductor.

POLICE HERE SEARCH FOR CONFIDENCE MEN

Word has been received at the local police department to be on the lookout for two men who have been working in an old confidence game with a $20 bill in Neenah. They left Neenah and Menasha after tricking merchants of those cities and were supposedly on their way toward Appleton, according to the chief of police at Menasha. The men were described as being about five feet, eight or ten inches in height, of dark complexion, one wearing a gray overcoat with a dark slouch hat and the other a dark overcoat and a dark hat.

Appleton Junction has been especially lively the last two days with people returning home for the holidays. It is one of the most important transfer points in the state and at times during the day the building and platform is crowded with people from all over the country waiting for their trains. The holiday rates offered by the different railway companies have nearly doubled passenger traffic.

4,500 CHILDREN GET INVITATION FROM SANTA CLAUS

Every Youngster is Invited to Attend Community Tree Program

Santa Claus on Saturday morning sent out more than 4,500 personal invitations to as many children in the city asking them to meet him a Solider square at 5:30 on Christmas eve to get their share of the candy and pop corn from the Community Christmas tree. The tree will be lighted and trimmed before the time of the program which will be short enough to enable children to go to other programs that have been planned for the evening.

Santa Claus himself will be chairman of the program and the community party. One of the biggest features of the gathering will be the community singing of Christmas carols, copies of which have been printed.

The letter which Santa sent out to the children follows:

North Pole.

Dear Children:
I want every girl and boy in Appleton to attend the Christmas tree celebration on Solider square Saturday evening. Be sure to be there promptly at 5:30 as I am going to give away candy and pop corn to all boys and girls who come to see me.

Yours for a Merry Christmas,

NEW ISLANDS WILL SOME DAY APPEAR IN LAKE MICHIGAN

Geologist Says Bottom of Lake
Along Northern Wisconsin
Shore is Rising

Special to the Post-Crescent.
Manitowoc—The bottom of Lake Michigan is rising. Almost any morning now a new island may poke itself out of the water and surprise the people of northern Wisconsin.

The entire topography of this part of the central west may be changed and Lake Michigan is expected by geologists to find a new outlet near Chicago instead of using the present one in the Straits of Mackinac.

It won't happen in 1921, nor in 1922, however. Land is rising at a rate of four-tenths of a foot a century around the Great Lakes, according to State Geologist W. O. Hotchkiss, who declared to an interviewer that the earth "acts as if it were breathing and is not as immovable as it appears, but rises and subsides in various portions of the globe."

RIISING IN PLACES
In Norway, for instance, the earth is rising in some places at a rate of from 3 to 4 feet a century, while in Greenland it is sinking nearly as fast.

The two-and-one-half inch rise in the last fifty years has made a great change in the topography of the region. A swamp, long considered irremediable by the residents of five decades ago, has been drained almost completely by natural movements of the land and water, and is now under cultivation near here.

The glaciers did it, opines Mr. Hotchkiss. The huge ice-sheets which covered the northern half of North America weighed so much that they depressed the surface like a rubber ball is depressed. Now, centuries after the glaciers have gone, the depressed regions are "pushing back."

The Chicago drainage canal is also blamed for the lowering of the lake, part of which is thereby diverted into the Mississippi river. These two factors are expected by the geologists to greatly decrease the area of the Great lakes in general and Lake Michigan in particular in the next eight or ten centuries.

But posterity, not people of 1921, will have to do the worrying.

Norway ranks high, also, with 12 men and one woman. Other Europeans are two Belgians, two Frenchwomen, one Italian, and one Russian.

The Panama canal one sends one student, and Porto Rico three. Canada claims eight men and four women here. Other countries are: South Africa, 4; Iceland, 1; Argentina, 4; Brazil, 1; Columbia, 1; Guatemala, 1; Mexico, 2; Peru, 2.

KINSMAN TAKES OPTIMISTIC VIEW OF TRADE FUTURE

Lawrence College Faculty Member is Speaker Before Oshkosh Club

Dr. D. O. Kinsman of Lawrence college was the chief speaker before the Candlelight club in Oshkosh this week, speaking on "The Business Outlook for 1922." Dr. Kinsman confined his talk to an analysis of the development of trade, industry and business from an academic standpoint.

"Normal trade conditions cannot be restored until the world markets have been stabilized, since the United States has come to take the major role in the world markets," said Dr. Kinsman. "There may and will be improvement over present conditions but there must come a time when the maximum effort is put forth in the various countries to produce these commodities in which they can best and most advantageously specialize. Economists claim that when that is done, present production may be attained at about one-half the present cost.

GOOD TIMES TO COME
He traced the history of trading from the time when men exchanged commodities locally, thereby permitting those who desired to specialize to do so. Then came community trading, territorial trading and finally national exchange. But the more recent developments have shown that the world market is the field of the nation. Instead of producing various articles of barter and exchange, men have not only produced for market needs but have produced for surplus needs. The producer, he explained, is not the farmer or artisan alone. The wholesaler and transporter are also included in that category.

In the last year the farmer, he said, produced 10 per cent more than in 1913. Transportation was 20 per cent in excess of 1913. Expenditures exceeded that year by 18 per cent.
Yet there have been hard times. These hard times came during the times of market activity and enlargement of manufacturing facilities which caused stagnation. He ended his address, which was one of deep interest, with expression of the opinion that the Yankee had always been able to find his way out of a dilemma and right now problems are being handled in a manner which indicated to his mind that conditions would be all right in time, but it will be twenty years before pre-war conditions will generally obtain.

New Method Testing Milk Is Arousing Much Interest

A new method for safeguarding the purity of milk has recently been evolved by Prof. H. F. Lichtenberg, a noted scientist and bacteriologist. This new method has been acclaimed by authorities as a vast improvement over those now employed.

To the consumers of milk, the people of the United States—this new method brings an important message.
To mothers in particular, whose little ones depend upon milk for their chief sustenance, this new method will be of particular interest. It is regarded by those in authority as an advanced step in the dairy industry. It is claimed that just as pasteurization marked a huge stride toward the perfection goal of milk, the "Contamo Test," as it is known, will also become regarded as one of the truly remarkable accomplishments which science has achieved.

OBJECTIONS TO PRESENT METHOD

It is interesting to see set forth some of the objections made to the present methods of testing milk. A few important ones are said to be as follows:

First, the old method of testing merely counts bacteria and does not differentiate between the kinds or degree of contamination.

Second, the unreliability of the method because it does not check up with itself, and the wide variation of results due to the human element necessary in conducting the test.

Third, the length of time required for the tests.

REASONS FOR OBJECTIONS

In support of these objections, the following arguments are advanced:

First, numbers of bacteria is meaningless unless the kind is known.
Cited as an example is buttermilk, which is known to be and recommended by medical authorities as one of the most beneficial of foods. Yet it is heavily laden with bacteria—but they are the kind of bacteria highly desirable for the human system. Milk which is low in bacteria will pass this test despite the fact that it may be unfit for human consumption. False protection, without any knowledge of the kind of contamination is offered with the old method of testing.

Second, several samples of the same milk can be simultaneously tested by different operators with results which vary so greatly that one operator may pronounce the milk very good while another condemns it. It is a known fact that removing the human element from any method brings that method closer to perfection. The present day methods of testing are largely made up of the human factor. Inac-curements must, of necessity, be presented under those conditions.

Third, forty-eight hours are required for the old method of testing.
That affords no assurance to the consumer that the milk was good for use, inasmuch as the test was completed hours after the product was actually consumed.

IMPROVEMENTS MADE BY NEW METHODS

"The Contamo Test," it is claimed, furnished the safeguards lacking in the old methods. It tests milk from a qualitative standpoint. Nothing but pure, clean, safe milk will pass this test. No contamination, no matter how infinitesimal in quantity, will escape detection with the "Contamo Test." It permits the dairyman to reject such bad milk as may come to his plant before it has an opportunity for having a harmful effect upon the good.

It is stated that it does not depend upon the human element for accuracy. It is automatic, simple in construction and in operation. The time required for the test is from five minutes to three hours. Thus the "Contamo Test" assures the fact that the milk is "tested before tasted."

Prof. Lichtenberg is a noted scientist who has made a life study of milk.
Being consulting chemist and bacteriologist for the largest ice cream company in the world, he has come face to face with the necessity of an absolutely effective method for testing milk. The "Contamo Test" resulted and is highly recommended by noted concerns and men of national repute.

RED CROSS HONORS FOUNDER'S MEMORY

Christmas Day Will be Hundredth Anniversary of Birth of Clara Barton

On Christmas day, members of the Red Cross and the Woman's Relief Corps will commemorate the hundredth birthday anniversary of Clara Barton, founder of the American Red Cross and world famous relief worker. It was Miss Barton who began the work of the American Red Cross after the Battle of Bull Run, when she left the Patent office in Washington to serve the wounded soldiers who were being brought to Washington and Alexandria.

Miss Barton established in Washington the bureau of records through which many missing men were located and which had charge of marking more than 12,000 graves. The relief worker then went to Europe to rest, but immediately began work with the International Red Cross at Shasburg which was aiding the wounded in the France-Prussian war. Upon her return, Miss Barton worked with congress to establish the American Red Cross which was not done until 1882.
Miss Barton was made the first president and remained in that office until 1905. To the founder goes the credit of establishing the service of the Red Cross in times of peace.

Miss Barton was an honorary member of the Woman's Relief corps. The national organization has honored her memory with a monument in the park, which was the Andersonville prison pen, and which was presented to the government as a gift from the Woman's Relief corps.

MARTIN MUST BE BADLY IN NEED OF A LOT OF MONEY

Soldier Champ Thinks He Has a Chance With Champion
Jack Dempsey

By Henry L. Farrell
New York—Bob Martin has joined the little group outside the cage looking in at the man killer.

The soldier champion wants to fight Jack Dempsey.

Head Broadway fans look at the challenge with a "well, he'd last about as long as any one."

Unless Martin has to meet some kind of a huge mortgage on the old homestead or something like that it is hard to understand why he wants any of Dempsey's game. He had a good little racket playing to soldier houses around in the cities and suburbs and he's still a good card but he won't be so good if he gets polished off like the Frenchman.

Jimmy Bronson's deft hurled at Dempsey on behalf of his boy brought the heavyweight situation back to notice.

It looks like another lean year for Dempsey.

Tex Rickard, however, figures he may be able to think up some kind of a match for the king of the big ones. The boss of Madison Square garden is expecting to see Kearns and Dempsey the first of the year as he has received word that they are about to give up their vaudeville act and start in quest of a good priced victim.

FULTON IS FAVORED

Rickard still believes that Fred Fulton would be a good card with Dempsey. He seems to place a little belief in what Fulton said about his first experience with Dempsey in New Jersey.

Outside of his leaning away from a mixed bout, Rickard does not think much of a Dempsey-Wills fight. His opinion is shared by a good many of the fans who believe that the big colored man has gone back and is not the battler he was several years ago.

Rickard right now is interested chiefly in the Carpenter-Gibbons bout that he has tucked away in his safe. Despite oft repeated stories coming from the other side, Rickard says he is sure that the Frenchman is coming over in February to meet the St. Paul heavyweight.

Sport Views And News

Some time there is more to a trade than just merely the exchange of players. The shake up of stars between the Yankees, Indians, and Boston Red Sox appears to have a kickback and it is quite possible that the magnates will have their hands full trying to put over the deal. Some of the players are squawking hard. Peckinpaugh refuses to go to Bean town and Stuffy McInnis is not very anxious to play with Cleveland. As yet the others haven't been heard from but they will also probably jump on the band wagon and join the eruption.

Dame Rumor has it that the ticket scalpers have gobbled up a number of choice seats for the Leonard-Mitchell go which will be staged in the auditorium at Milwaukee, Jan. 2. This is possible but not probable. Some of the Cream City fistie followers when they discovered their regular seats had been sold to out-of-towners very likely started their tongues a-wagging and Dame Rumor got busy on the ticket scalping yarn.

The knot hole gang plan was a success in St. Louis. During the past season, 62,000 youngsters took advantage of the free gate and watched the big leaguers in action. The kids of today are the fans of tomorrow and this stunt greatly tends to increase the interest in the national game.

GREEN BAY PREPARES SNAPP BOXING CARD

Matchmaker Harry Levitas has prepared a snappy card for the boxing show to be staged in Green Bay, Dec. 30, under the auspices of the Green Bay Boxing club. The main go will be a ten round mixer between Steve Riddle of the Bay and Frankie Henke of Milwaukee. The latter has a long record of wins and according to reports, is being primed for a fight with Johnny Egan late in January. The semi-windup will feature Louie Mann of Green Bay and Johnny Hoffman of the Cream City in an eight round go. Paddy McDonough, and Young Brickner will have it out in a six round affair in the opening bout.

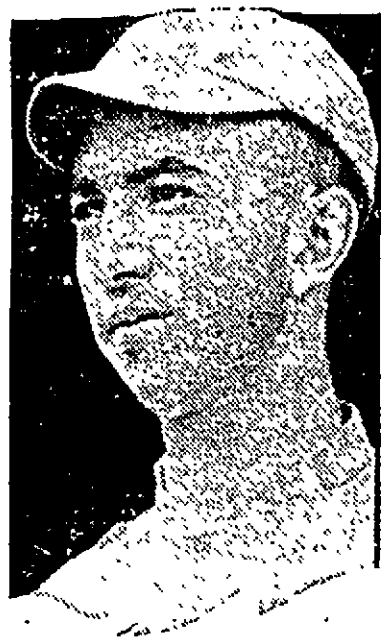

SCHEURLE TO HAVE BASKETBALL QUINT

Another semi-professional basketball team will represent Appleton on the floor this season. It will be known as the Big Five team and will be under the direction and management of A. B. Scheurle, 722 College Ave. The squad will contain some of the best men picked from the Badgers, Bushes and other strong local teams. Scheurle is desirous of arranging games with all first class teams in the state.

BUSHEY TEAM STARTS ITS TRIP ON MONDAY

The Bushey Business college team will open its Christmas trip Monday evening at Leona. The Bushey team will play in that city Monday and Tuesday evenings. A heavy schedule has been arranged by Gerald Bushey, manager. The regular Bushey team, composed of Krammer and Kundig; guards; Anderson, center; Louie and Rundhammer, forwards, will make the trip.

These Stars Go To New York

EVERETT SCOTT

JOE BUSH

SAM JONES

By Billy Evans
The field against New York is a bad bet in the American League.

The latest deal put through with the Boston Red Sox just about insures the Yankees another pennant.

The addition of the two Red Sox pitching stars, Joe Bush and Sam Jones, is the big punch in the transaction.

Everett Scott, who goes with the two pitchers to New York, is one of the greatest shortstops in the history of the game. Scott is a remarkable fielder. He is not a hard hitter but is dangerous.

Despite the fact that Scott is a wonderful ball player, his addition to the Yankees does not carry any great weight. If I were to select a shortstop for general all-around value in the American League, it would be a tossup with me between Peckinpaugh and Scott.

In acquiring Scott, the Yankees give up Peckinpaugh. It is just about a fifty-fifty proposition. Peckinpaugh was a great favorite with the New York fans. Scott is certain to be equally well liked.

It has been rumored that the Yankees may use Scott in a trade with Detroit to secure outfielder Veach. I have my doubts. If Scott was traded to Detroit, it would necessitate the playing of an untried recruit, Johnny Mitchell, at shortstop. That wouldn't be good policy for a club that hopes to repeat.

The coming of the two Boston stars to New York gives the Yankees the strongest pitching staff in the American League. Waite Hoyt, Carl Mays and Bob Shawkey, plus Jones and Bush, make five seasoned veterans, who combine every style of pitching.

The New York club lacks only a good southpaw. Manager Huggins is hopeful that "Lefty" O'Doul, who had such a big season on the coast, will fill that breach.

In figuring games won, it is conservative to say that five great pitchers like Hoyt, Mays, Bush, Jones and Shawkey should win fifteen games each. That would make seventy-five games on the right side of the ledger. A team that can win ninety games is certain to be a pennant contender. So it is easy to figure the Yankees have a pretty good chance.

Sam Jones is one of the most valuable pitchers in the American League. He is a finished performer who knows how to pitch. He has a good fast ball, a great curve and a corking change of pace. Add to this great control and pitching intelligence and you have Sam Jones.

Joe Bush had a big year in 1921, due largely to a new delivery he developed. Joe calls it the "fork ball," because of the way he held it to get the break. It acts very much like a spitball. In addition, Bush still has fine speed and a good curve. Like Jones, he knows how to pitch.

In the winter books the addition of Jones, Bush and Scott makes the Yankees stand out as a prohibitive favorite in the American League derby.

INTERLAKES WIN IN EASY FASHION FROM KAUKAUNA

Mulford Clothing Co. Team Goes Down Under '43 to 10 Score

Another victory was chalked up by the Interlakes Pulp and Paper company basketball team Friday evening at Armory G when it took the Mulford Clothing team of Kaukauna into camp for a 43 to 10 drubbing. The local quint had a nifty defense and a neat set of plays that netted its tidy margin. Day and Gregory were the bright lights for the millmen, netting 25 points between them. Rock played a good defensive game and chalked up two baskets. The downriver players did not seem to have an eye for the net, missing numerous shots. Their defense was ragged and they did not seem to be able to know what to do with the ball when they had it. Ott and Engerson were the leaders for the Interlakes.

Baetz started the locals' scoring with four baskets in the first five minutes of play but was replaced by Gardner in the second half.

The first half ended 22 to 3 with the visitors on the short end.

Here are the lineups:

Interlakes—Day and Baetz, forwards; Gregory, center; Kessler and Rock, guards.

Mulford Clothing—Ott and Hohman, forwards; Engerson, center; Curry and Hoes, guards.

Referee—H. D. McChesney of Lawrence college.

NORTHWESTERN TOO MUCH FOR ST. PAUL

Local Team Defeated in Lobsided
Game in "Y" Gymnasium, 43 to 8

St. Paul Lutheran basketball team fell before the heavy attack of the Northwestern college ideals. Watertown, in a one sided contest, 43 to 8, Friday evening in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium. The local team played without the services of W. Rehbein, star center, and P. Sherman, regular guard, and were unable to break through the collegians' defense. Wetmann was the individual star for the Watertown men, netting seven baskets, three of them spectacular shots from difficult angles. Reddin played a good game at guard and score six baskets and one free throw.

The lineup:

St. Paul—R. Rehbein and Voecks, forwards; Mehls, center; Hartung and Reif, guards.

Northwestern—Reddin and Kleinke, forwards; Wetmann, center; Siffring and Niemann, guards.

The game was followed by a social hour for members of the teams and their friends in the St. Paul school building. A program was given and arranged by the Social committee of the St. Paul Lutheran church.

MANITOWOC CALLS OFF GAME WITH DAME'S TEAM

The game scheduled at Manitowoc between the Appleton team of the Central Basketball league and Manitowoc was called off on Friday. The teams were to have played Friday evening. It is understood that basketball interest in Manitowoc has lagged during the Christmas holidays.

Harry Sylvester of Appleton, refereed the game.

ORDER TRIAL FOR DRY OFFICERS WHO SHOT MOONSHINER

Coroner's Jury Sitting in Antigo Springs Surprise in Its Verdict

Antigo—Holding that the prohibition officers unlawfully and unwarrantably caused the death of Julius Wuermer, a coroner's jury late Friday afternoon recommended that the officers be held for trial. The charge against them, according to District Attorney C. J. Richter, is to be manslaughter.

Reinert is undecided as to what course to pursue and will communicate with prohibition directors before taking any action.

The verdict in view of the testimony at the inquest which indicated that the federal agents opened fire after Wuermer had drawn a gun when he had been ordered to surrender, came as a distinct surprise.

The men hit by the coroner's verdict and who were still here Friday night, not having been placed under arrest, are Nicholas Annen, William Loose and J. A. Door, federal prohibition agents, and Harry W. Morse, deputy sheriff of Langlade co.

IMMENSE CROWD AT BAPTIST PAGEANT

Events Surrounding Birth of Savior Depicted in Splendid Program

When the dramatic pageant, "The Birth of Christ," was presented by the young people of the Baptist church on Friday evening, all available space in the church was filled. The pageant showed the traditional events surrounding the birth of Jesus. Mrs. J. D. Laughlin directed the music and Mrs. A. L. McMillan had charge of the pageant.

Those who took part in the pageant were: The Rev. A. L. McMillan as the prophet Isaiah, Mrs. Harold Babbs and Helen Jean as the mother and child in the procession of unwilling pilgrims to Bethlehem, Mrs. Carl Ebert and Evelyn and Gerald Stallman as Miriam and children; Basil Aird was Titus, Stanley Gillespie, Dan; Glen Meldam, Harold Babbs and Cornelius Ruggles, Jr. were the three aged rabbis, while Percy Blount, Clifford Stammer, Lyman Clark and Erwin Kimball were shepherds. Mrs. Basil Aird, Mrs. G. Ruggles, Mrs. Glen Meldam and Mrs. J. C. Dorfield were the angel chorus.

In the manager scene, Mrs. Robert Jarvis was Mary and Carl Ebert, Joseph, Harold Edas was a pilgrim, Lee Laughlin, Lyman Clark, Russell Harrison were the three kings; Balhusgar, Gaspar and Melchior. Musical numbers included "Hosanna in the Highest" by the quartet consisting of Miss Vera Lockery, Mrs. Harold Babbs, George Payant and Rev. A. L. McMillan. "Hark the Herald Angels Sing" and "We Three Kings of the Orient Are" by the choir. The Junior choir sang "O come all ye faithful."

"ROAD HOGS" ENDANGER RURAL MAIL CARRIERS

Horses and cutters are now used by rural carriers on their routes as the snow is too deep for cars to get around in speedy fashion. The carriers report the lack of road courtesy on the part of motor car drivers who insist on "hogging" all the road and in many instances have narrowly escaped endangering the lives of the carriers by driving close to them at a high rate of speed.

Condition Is Critical
John Bennick of Kaukauna, bridge foreman of the Ashland division of the Northwestern road, who suffered a stroke of paralysis several weeks ago, is still in a critical condition at St. Elizabeth hospital.

Are You Sure Your Child Is Perfectly Well?

Is his weight and height what they should be at his age? Are his eyes and ears up to normal? How about his feet? Are his nerves sound?

If you are not sure, it is your first duty to find out. Defects of the eyes and ears, malnutrition, flat feet, crooked spine, bad nerves, in most cases can be corrected if taken in hand when the child is still young.

You can secure, entirely without cost, an extremely valuable booklet prepared under the direction of the American Red Cross, containing a wealth of information about children, their health, and what parents can and should do about it. To have this sent to you, clip out the coupon below, enclosing two cents in stamps for return postage. Print name and address or be sure to write plainly. This will prevent confusion and delay.

DON'T KNOW WHAT TO DO WITH GUNS

Seymour Officials Puzzled by Counter Demands of Husband and Wife

Police officials of Seymour are in a quandary as to what course to follow concerning a case of last summer when two shot guns and a revolver were taken from a Seymour man because of his alleged insanity. Now that the man is improved in health he claims the guns and says he will sue the official in whose custody the guns now repose, if they are not returned to him. The wife of the man in question asserted she would sue the police official if the guns were given back to her husband.

Not knowing what to do the police department called a county official of this city Saturday morning asking his advice on the matter. He was told to remain neutral and wait for arrest which was promised if the guns were not returned to the alleged insane man. If the matter should get into court the judge could then decide the disposition of the firearms.

CHILDREN INVITED TO CHRISTMAS PROGRAM

Free tickets to the Christmas matinee Monday afternoon in Appleton theater have been provided the less fortunate children of the city by Manager Henry Gribler. A list was secured from the Red Cross office and each child assured of admission. The stage will be decorated with Christmas trees, which Jettison-Peabody company had in front of its store, and which were donated for the children's event. Gifts and candy will be given away. The program includes comic motion pictures, vaudeville and a plucking contest by local boys.

Mild Poisoning Cases
Several cases of poisoning, or rather mild cases of skin eruption, caused by coming in contact with Christmas trees have come to the attention of local physicians. The trees themselves are not poisonous and whatever trouble has been caused by them is due to poisonous vines or plants having at one time clung to their branches.

WOMEN LIABLE FOR NOTES THEY SIGN

Suffrage Law Just Passed
Makes Wives Liable With Their Husbands

Madison—Married women of Wisconsin are bound by notes signed by them jointly with their husbands, in the opinion of W. W. Gilman, assistant attorney general in an opinion just handed down.

The question is a new one and consists of interpretation of the 1921 Wisconsin "equal suffrage" law, the special provisions of which have not been ruled on by the courts.

Attorney Gilman quotes the 1921 law, which says that women shall have "the same rights and privileges of man in suffrage, freedom of contract, and all other respects," and that "every privilege of man is given to women except in matters of special privilege" wherein the fact of being a woman gives the feminine sex special courtesy.

The crux of the question of liability of women on jointly signed notes is whether "liability" in this case is a "privilege" or a "liability" of freedom, Gilman said. He is inclined to believe it is a privilege allowing her greater freedom of action, and as such would say that the signature of a married woman as surety held her responsible in just as large a degree as the signature of her husband held him.

An exception, necessitating a special ruling, would have to be made in the case of a woman signing jointly in the conduct of negotiations of her own private estate.

J. M. Dennison boys' secretary of the Y. M. C. A. left Friday evening for Merrill where he will spend Christmas day with relatives.

John L. Woehler son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Woehler, 808 Appleton, is home from Milwaukee where he is attending Marquette University, to spend the holiday vacation with his parents.

Joseph Milhaupt of Chicago is the guest of Appleton friends.

LETTERS TO LOVERS

Tears--Love's Weapon

By Winona Wilcox

I have not cried for two long years," writes a young wife. "I have been married five years."

"Now let no one think it was a thinness of emotional experience which has dried my tears forever. Rather it was a sense of the futility of crying."

Then follows a recital involving another woman, the mother of her husband's child. Under the circumstances, not to weep ever again about her heart-break indicates a strength of character to be respected.

Of less tragic interest is the question this letter suggests to every woman:

"When did I cry last? Two months ago? Two weeks ago? Or two hours ago?"

The correct answer is worth seeking for by crying or not crying, under stress, a woman can gauge herself.

Man adores the tears of his beloved, seen for the first time, perhaps under a summer moon.

When his bride becomes jealous and has hysterics in his arms, he is peculiarly flattered. Her sweet dependence makes him feel strong and he is intoxicated with the charming revelation of the eternal feminine.

When the matron weeps reproachfully and copiously, perhaps because she has been neglected while he figured his income tax, the husband flies for the smelling salts and murmurs:

"Good heavens, what a fright crying does make a woman!"

The tears of a woman in the business world are an impertinence, whether she knows it or not, whether she galls by it or not. Probably the more a business girl gains by her weeping, at first, the more she has to lose in the end. For lose she will just as surely as the married matron does.

Only in his sentimental youth does man quote:

"Tears, the tears, I know not what they mean!" when he considers the tears of a woman. A little later in life he knows very well what a woman's tears mean and he dreads them as love's deadliest weapon.

Experience teaches him to distinguish between the cries of temper, distress, reproach, allurements, irritability, hysteria and repentance.

But in spite of all this wisdom, if the girl he loves cries with a little discretion, he generally permits her tears to accomplish their intended purpose--and says nothing.

But if the feminine role is overacted or enacted too often, the man suddenly loses interest.

And what is more fatal to love?

Adventures of the Twins

Olive Roberts Barton

When the silly old cotton-spinner (one of the Wiggles people, you know) coughed out his tummy right through his mouth, and the pink pearl rolled out on the white sand, the bottom of the Twins stared all their eyes nearly dropped out. But what could they do, when Mr. Cotton-Spinner had them done up like parcels, in his white wrapping string?

"Oh, ho! Ha, ha! Hee, hee!" laughed the thief. "Isn't that a fine pocket-book to have, my dears! And think how safe it is! You'd never lose pennies down the board-walk if you could swallow 'em and then cough them up when you wished to buy a lolly-pop. That's the way it is with my pink pearl. I'll always keep it safe and sound."

With these words, Mr. Cotton-Spinner pulled in his ridiculous paper-bag of a stomach and swallowed the pink pearl again for safe keeping.

Suddenly a voice said, "What's this I hear about swallowing pink pearls? Who did?"

"I did," answered Cuckie Cotton-Spinner with a bow. "I have it here in my tummy right now."

"I don't believe you!" declared the voice again and Crawly Crab waddled into view.

"What! You don't! I'll show you!" declared Cuckie, blowing out his tummy again, with the pink pearl inside. But he was suspicious of Crawly and wouldn't let go. "Here, you may feel it," he said. "It's that hard place."

But now comes the amazing part, my dears: Crawly took his snippers and cut Mr. Cotton-Spinner's stomach off, before you could sneeze, with one snip. Next he cut the threads around the Twins and set them free.

"Don't worry about Mr. Cuckie's stomach!" he said. "He'll grow a new one in three days. There's your pearl, children!"

(To be Continued)

More About Codfish

Codfish, either salt or fresh, is one of the cheapest and best of the fish foods.

Although codfish is usually low in price, it's high in food value and is one of the most quickly digested of the more common foods.

These recipes for codfish are perhaps a little out of the line in quest for "something different."

BREADED CODFISH CUTLETS

Cut fresh codfish in pieces for serving about an inch thick. Sprinkle with lemon juice, salt and pepper and let stand half an hour.

Dip in fine bread crumbs, dip in an egg slightly beaten with 1 tablespoon milk and dip again in crumbs. Fry in deep hot fat for 10 minutes. Drain on brown paper and serve with stewed tomatoes.

EGG SAUCE

Four tablespoons butter, 2 table spoons flour, 1 1/4 cups water, 4 table spoons lemon juice, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon paprika, 2 egg yolks.

Melt butter, stir in flour and slowly add water and lemon juice mixed, stirring constantly. Season with salt and paprika and boil 5 minutes. Add yolks slightly beaten and cook without boil ing for 3 minutes. Use the whites of the eggs for a cake.

Salt codfish may be soaked in like-warm water, boiled until tender and served in the same way as the fresh fish. Put the fillets of the salt fish in cheesecloth and add the lemon juice or vinegar but not the salt to water in which the fish is cooked.

Drain fish and arrange on a deep platter. Hard boil 2 eggs and chop the whites coarsely. Add these to the sauce. Pour sauce over fish and cover with yolks of eggs forced through a ricer or rubbed through a colander.

BOILED CODFISH

Wash and clean fish but do not remove bones. Tie in cheesecloth and cover with boiling water. Add 1 tea spoon lemon juice and 1 teaspoon salt to each quart of water.

The salt improves the flavor and the lemon juice or vinegar keeps the fish white. Boil 20 to 30 minutes and serve with hard-boiled eggs and minced parsley. An egg sauce may be poured over the fish or served separately.

STUFFED FRESH COD

A small cod weighing four pounds is delicious stuffed and baked. An oyster stuffing adds much to the dish, but makes it much more expensive.

A plain cracker stuffing is better with fish than a bread stuffing.

Clean fish, sprinkle with salt, pepper and lemon juice inside and out, stuff and sew. Cut gashes on each side of the backbone in a dove-tail fashion. Put narrow strips of salt pork in each gash.

If a fish sheet is not available use a piece of cotton cloth well greased. Put the fish on this and put the whole thing into a dripping pan. Dredge with flour, bake an hour in a hot oven, basting frequently with hot water.

VIRGINIA FARMERS WANT WISCONSIN CLOVER SEED

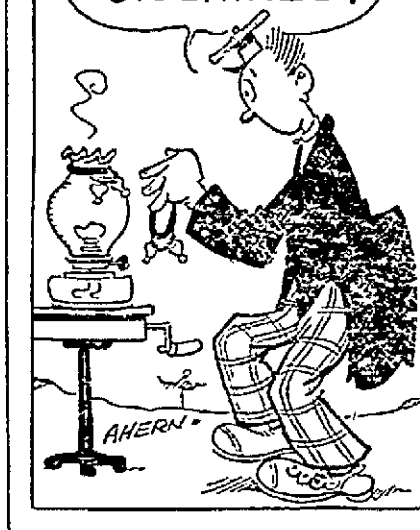

Wisconsin hay and clover probably will be growing in Virginia next summer if there is any response to a request received by Hugh G. Corbett, managing secretary of the chamber of commerce, from Russell County Farm bureau, Lebanon, Va., asking a list of persons, elevator managers, brokers and dealers in this locality who have surplus grass and clover feed. Mr. Corbett intends to supply whatever information he is able to gather.
